FDCP: The Future of Philippine Cinema Faculty Symposium and Workshop

To: Chief, Curriculum Implementation Division
Education Program Supervisors
PSDS of Sagay 8,9, 10
Secondary School heads

1. The Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) aims to share skills and understanding of film education to the community.
2. In this regard, FDCP through the Negros Museum Cinematheque, in partnership with DepEd Sagay will conduct FDCP: The Future of Philippine Cinema Faculty Symposium and Workshop on July 26,27 and 28, 2019, 8:00 AM – 5:00PM at the Balay Kauswagan, Sagay City.
3. The Symposium/Workshop aims to:
 - a. Develop film literacy in the community level
 - b. Advocate the importance of film education in the arts and culture; and
 - c. Appreciate the value and significance of film education in the student's general education to achieve their fullest development.
4. Since Film Education and Appreciation is an integral part of the MAPEH Arts curriculum particularly in Grade 10 and Senior High School, those teaching the subject are pre-identified as participants to this workshop. Please see list of participants in the enclosure no.1.
5. The members of the working committees can be found in enclosure no 2 while the training matrix can be found in enclosure no. 3.
6. For immediate and wide dissemination in the field.
